Message From the President

Dear CAFS Members and Friends:

Our CAFS Annual Meeting in conjunction with the IFT Annual Meeting will be held on June 25-28 in Las Vegas. The City of Las Vegas has been famous for “What Happens Here, Stays Here”. Besides the academic exchanges and networking, you will have opportunities to enjoy various fun activities.

Through several months of careful planning and organizing efforts involving many individuals, especially the members of CAFS Executive Board and Committees, we are looking forward to productive and enjoyable CAFS activities in Las Vegas. In this newsletter, you can find detailed information on the activities planned for the CAFS Annual Meeting.

The three major activities include Annual Business Meeting and Networking, Annual Banquet, and Career Pathway Workshop. Please be aware that The CAFS Business Meeting and Networking, and Annual Banquet will be two separate events this year, which will give you an update of the current status of our society, recognize the achievements and contributions of individual members, and offer networking opportunities for members, friends and our event sponsors. The speakers of CAFS Career Pathway Workshop will share their successful stories on job search and career development.

I encourage each of you to participate in all activities of the CAFS meeting. These planned activities will offer great opportunities for us to share friendship and professional development. You are welcome to bring your guests to these activities, especially to the Annual Banquet. There will be onsite registration in case you have not registered for the CAFS Annual Banquet through the IFT meeting registration.

I am looking forward to meeting you in Las Vegas.

Zhongli Pan, President of CAFS

2017 CAFS Election

Candidates for CAFS 2017 EC Members

Dr. Fanbin Kong

For President-Elect 2017 – 2018

Dr. Fanbin Kong obtained B.S. degree and M.S. degree in Environmental Engineering from Tianjin University and Tsinghua University, China, respectively. He had worked in the industry for several years specializing in membrane filtration and waste water treatment. Dr. Kong obtained Ph.D. degree in Food Engineering in 2007 from Washington State University, Pullman, WA. After graduation, he worked as a postdoctoral fellow in the Department of Biological & Agricultural Engineering, University of California, Davis. In 2011, Dr. Kong joined the Department of Food Science & Technology, University of Georgia as an assistant professor. He was promoted to associate professor in 2016. Dr. Kong's research interests include in vitro simulation of digestive systems, bioaccessibility and bioavailability of food nutrient and bioactive components, new technologies such as radio frequency heating, microencapsulation and nanotechnology. He teaches undergraduate course "Food Engineering Fundamentals", "Senior Project Design", and graduate course "Advanced Food Processes".

Dr. Cuie Yan
For Director 2017 – 2018

Dr. Cuie Yan obtained her Ph.D degree in Polymer Chemistry and Physics at Zhejiang University in 1998. After her Ph.D. study, Dr. Yan went to work at National Science Research Center at France and at Hubei University at Hubei, China, as research fellow and as a professor separately on functional colloids for bio-active delivery ingredient and technologies. From 2005 to 2013, Dr. Yan worked for DSM Nutrition Product in Canada on delivery technologies and systems for Omega-s fatty acids. From March 2013, Dr. Yan joined Pepsico R&D as a Principal Scientist to work on innovation on delivery technologies of flavor, nutrient, and color for Frito-Lay, Gatorade, Tropicana, and Quaker Oats. Right now, Dr. Yan works in PepsiCo R&D at Valhalla, NY, as a Principal Scientist on natural sweeteners, flavor modification, and mouthfeel enhancement.

Dr. Yan is active and well-known in the nutrients delivery and microencapsulation area. She has three patents, more than fifteen peer-reviewed scientific publications, and many national and international conference presentations.

CAFS Outstanding Student Awards

Purpose

1. To encourage diligence and excellence in the pursuit of undergraduate studies in food science, food technology, or food engineering
2. To promote quality and professionalism in scientific research and communication skills among graduate students in food science, technology or engineering

Eligibility

1. Undergraduate students: enrolled in reputable food science, technology, or engineering programs and are or plan to become CAFS student members at or before 2017 IFT Annual Meeting. Winners are selected based on their academic records, essay, two recommendation letters (if possible, at least one from CAFS professional member), and extracurricular activities.

2. Graduate students: enrolled in reputable food science, technology or engineering graduate programs and are or plan to become CAFS student members at or before 2017 IFT Annual Meeting. Winners are selected based on their academic records, essay, two recommendation letters (if possible, at least one from CAFS professional member), extracurricular activities, and scholarly achievements, which will be largely based on the quality and acceptance of an abstract for presentation at the 2017 IFT Annual Meeting or other professional conferences of food science professional societies such as IUFoST, ACS, ASABE, AIChE, and IAFP. Applications will be evaluated based on two levels, i.e., M.S. or Ph.D.

3. A successful applicant may apply again in the following year.

Criteria

1. Applicants stated goal consistent with the purpose of the CAFS awards;
2. Superior academic achievements demonstrating diligence and intelligence;
3. Research and/or extra-curricular activities demonstrating leadership, motivation and dedication in the pursuit of studies in food science and technology;

4. Observations by professionals (faculty, members, etc.) in recommendation letters.

Application requirements

A letter of application, an essay of career goal, current resume, academic records, and two recommendation letters. For graduates an abstract accepted for presentation at the IFT Annual Meeting in 2017.

CAFS Professional Achievement Award

Purpose: To recognize a professional member for his/her outstanding and sustained contribution to CAFS.

Nomination documents: Nominator should submit a nomination letter, current resume of the nominee, and two reference letters from current CAFS professional members to the Award Committee. Purpose: To recognize a professional member for his/her outstanding contributions to the field of food science and engineering, as it relates to teaching, research, extension, administration, or leadership in the food industry, academia and government.

Eligibility: Active CAFS members only. The winner receives a commemorative plaque and an invitation to the award ceremony at the CAFS annual banquet.

CAFS Distinguished Service Award

Eligibility: Active CAFS members only. The winner will receive a commemorative plaque and an invitation to the award ceremony at the CAFS annual banquet.

Nomination documents: Nominator should submit a nomination letter, current resume of the nominee, and two reference letters from current CAFS professional members to the Award Committee.

Number of Awards per Year

Awards: undergraduate (2), graduate (up to 3)

Professional Achievement and Distinguished Service awards: one each. The awards will only be honored when qualified recipients are identified.

Selection Process

Upon receipt of all applications by the deadline, the Award Committee will review the applications and supporting documents. Each committee member will assign a numerical rating on each candidate. Those candidates receiving the highest scores will be the winners. In case of tie in a given category, the committee chair can call for a re-vote.

CAFS Inaugural Career Pathway Workshop

CAFS Inaugural Career Pathway Workshop at IFT 2017 in Las Vegas

Open to CAFS Student Members

Date/time and Venue:

Tuesday, 6/27/2017, at 2:30 – 4 pm

Las Vegas Convention Center Room 803 –
Marco Polo

Objectives:

1. To be familiar with three (3) main career pathways available to Food Science Professionals: academia, industry, and government and why each one may or may not be the right choice;
2. To be aware of general qualifications for each of the career pathways, including knowledge or technical background preparation and skillsets required for applying for and sustaining in the chosen professional position;
3. To notice the recent trends in job market and hiring processes in each of the pathways;
4. To gain knowledge of general benefits associated with each of the career pathways.

This workshop is ideal for graduate students and recent graduates who are in a transition position or considering a career change. This workshop also allows time for the participants to inventory your own values, interests, background, strengths and weaknesses so that you can select which career pathway you'd like to explore in detail.

Speakers and agenda:

1. Professional Development options in academia: Y. Olive Li (Cal Poly Pomona)
2. Career opportunity in governmental agencies: Lihan Huang (USDA ARS)
3. Job options in the food industry: Dongming Tang (R&D scientist with Hershey's Chocolate) and Cuie Yan (Principle Scientist with Pepsico)
4. Q&A via panel discussion

Registration:

Given the constraint of the room size, this workshop will have a maximum number of 35 for interested student members. Please RVSP using the link below, first come first serve:

征集緬懷蘇意誠 (Dr. Yi-Cheng Su) 博士紀念文章

Oregon State University教授，CAFS前主席蘇意誠博士於2016年12月3日因病去世。蘇意誠教授曾經長期服務CAFS，為學會的發展作出重要貢獻。CAFS將於IFT會議期間舉行紀念活動。在此向華美食品學會全體會員，征集緬懷蘇意誠先生紀念文章。希望以此方式，追憶蘇博士的崇高品格和对CAFS的卓越貢獻，以寄托對蘇博士的哀思。

稿件文體不拘，內容不限，字數不限。中英文均可。

投稿時間：2017年5月15日——2017年6月15日

投稿方式：電子郵件：fkong@uga.edu

凡符合征文要求的作品，將擇優輯入緬懷蘇意誠博士紀念專刊。紀念專刊將於IFT會議期間發表。

Call for memorial essays honoring Dr. Yi-Cheng Su

Dear CAFS family members,

CAFS's former president Dr. Yi-Cheng Su passed away on Dec 3, 2016. In 2017 IFT meeting, CAFS will hold a memorial ceremony to recognize his contribution to our society.

One of the planned activities is to compile a book with a collection of memorial essays in honor of Dr. Yi-Cheng Su. CAFS members are invited to contribute an essay in memory of Professor Su. There is no limitation on length, content, style, and language of the essay. A special book will be compiled with selected essays and dedicated to Dr. Yi-Cheng Su during CAFS meeting at the IFT annual meeting.
